The church shall elect Trustees when required under the relevant trust deed(s).

5. LEADERSHIP

5.1 Lead Pastor

The Lead Pastor shall be entrusted with the oversight of the church (along with the elders) and of all ministry leaders. The Lead Pastor shall be accountable to the Elders for agreed outcomes.

5.1.2 Pastoral Vacancy

When a vacancy occurs in the Lead pastorate, the church may, on the recommendation of the Elders, appoint an Interim Pastor who shall temporarily take up this function. No call to the pastorate shall be made except on the votes of at least 75% of Partners present at that meeting. Voting shall be by secret ballot.

5.1.3 Termination of the Pastorate

Three months' notice shall be given by the church or the pastor before the pastorate is terminated unless another period is negotiated between the parties. Any resolution to terminate the pastorate shall require a vote of at least 50% of partners present by secret ballot at a properly constituted special partners' meeting called for that purpose. While it is acknowledged that the Lead Pastor, and any person appointed under Section 5.3 - is not an employee, the church partnership shall ensure that the pastor is treated with fairness and dignity upon the conclusion of the pastorate. Any dispute or difference arising out of the conclusion of the pastorate must be referred to an independent party for resolution by way of mediation or such alternative dispute resolution process that is agreed as being appropriate. In the event it is not possible to reach agreement as to the identity of the independent party, a senior staff member of the Baptist Union shall appoint such an independent person.

5.1.4 Nature of the Relationship

Unless the parties agree in writing to the contrary, the relationship between the church and the Lead Pastor (and any Staff appointed under section 5.3.3 Terms of Call) will not be an employment relationship, but a relationship of spiritual service, and is not intended to create a legal relationship.

5.2 Elders

5:2:1 Responsibilities

The Elders, along with the Lead Pastor, are responsible for the governance and direction of the church, seeking to bring into reality the vision and mission of the church. The Elders can set and change policies for church life from time to time. These policies will be available to all Partners in a separate document.

Recommendation: Names of possible Elders are to be recommended in writing by anyone in the church to the whole leadership team (Elders and Ministry Leaders as set out in 3.2).

An Elder must be a Partner.

Discernment: The leadership team shall go through a discernment process when considering each of the persons recommended. This process shall consider character (1 Timothy 3:1-7), skills, and calling. The discernment process will also involve discussion with the candidate. At least 75% of the leadership team must be in agreement in order for any of the recommended persons' names to be brought before a church meeting for consideration for appointment as an Elder.

Approval: The names brought to the church meeting by the leadership team must be approved by not less than 75% of the partners present. Votes cast shall be by secret ballot.

5:2:3 Size of Eldership

5.2.5 Meetings

The Elders shall meet (where possible) at least monthly with the Lead Pastor.

5.3 Staff and Ministry Leaders

5.3.1 Ministry Areas

5.3.2 Ministry Leaders

Ministry Leaders will be appointed by the Lead Pastor and Elders, and approved at a church meeting. A Ministry Leader must be a Partner.

Each Ministry Leader will be required to work according to the values and policies of the church and within the parameters of the budget allocated to that ministry. They will be given the authority to develop their ministry and will be accountable to the Lead Pastor for achieving the agreed outcomes. A Ministry Leader may appoint other church members to form a team to assist them in their ministry.

5.3.3 Terms of Call

Those Ministry Leaders and staff considered “Pastors” in the life of the church shall receive from the church a Letter of Call to their ministry position, subject to 6.1. clear “Terms of Call” shall accompany the call to that person, together with the arrangements for the termination of the call.

5.3.4 Appointment of Staff

Providing provision for the appointment is included in the Church budget, appointments of staff members serving less than half time may be made by the Lead Pastor in consultation with the Elders. Any staff member who is not a Ministry Leader, but is employed for more than half time, must be approved at a church meeting.

- 7.1 Any land or any property including church buildings and manses shall be vested in the Baptist Union as Trustee, which shall hold them for and on behalf of the church; and shall deal with the property by consent and direction of the church in accordance with the Trusts declared in the Sixth Schedule to the "Baptist Union Incorporation Act 1923".

8. ALTERATIONS TO THE CONSTITUTION

- 8.1 No alteration or addition to the constitution shall be made unless adopted by a majority of at least 75% of Partners present at a church meeting.

9.1.5 Nothing shall prevent the church from making payments to any individual (whether a partner or not) in fulfilling any of the purposes expressed in clause 2 (Aims and Functions) hereof.

9.2 Partners or leaders of the church, in determining all reimbursements, remuneration and charges payable in this clause, shall ensure that the restrictions imposed by the following clause are strictly observed:
